I hope this letter finds you doing well. As you may recall, my firm assisted with the administration of the In Re Cincinnati Police Damaging Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") from which you received an award.

I am pleased to tell you that the QSF recently received its final tax refund from the United States Treasury. As a result of this federal tax refund, as well as the remaining accrued interest, the QSF has a current balance of $1,561.13. Included with this letter is a check for your proportionate share of that balance. Your share of the remaining balance is based upon the percentage of the total settlement amount (paid by the Defendant) that your settlement award represented.
